Visited places

Bogota

Bogotá is Colombia's capital city, the country's economic and political hub, and the place where culture and tourism is promoted. It is located 2.600 meters above sea level in the cundiboyacence plateau of the Andes Eastern Cordillera. Its attractions include historical sites, architecture, bicycle ways, parks, a diversity of gastronomy, museums, a collection of Pre-Colombian golden works of art, colonial churches, malls, bars and night clubs. Some of the most touristic places are: Monserrate Hill, the Gold Museum, Bolivar House, Colpatria Tower, Maloka and the Planetarium.

City tour with Monserrate - Bogotá

Monserrate is one of the most well known icons of Bogotá, famous for the church at the top of its hill which offers the best views of the city. Many people (not just locals) reach the top by walking — it takes about an hour — while others take the funicular or cable car up.

You will enjoy a panoramic tour through the historic center, looking at the Colon Theater, San Carlos Palace, San Ignacio Church, Nariño Presidential Palace, Bolivar Square, the Capitol, the City Hall and the Cathedral. Visit to the Gold Museum. Finally, we will take the cable car to reach the Monserrate hill.
